settled and accompanied him to the new postoffice lot, where the work of excavating is being rapidly pushed forward. Contractor Simpson expects to have his work done by the end of the week, although there remains considerable to be done.

BITTEN BY DOG.

Andrew Smead Attacked Because Animal Had Been Locked Up.

Andrew Smead of Mt. Hope was bitten by his dog Sunday night. Mr. Smead went to the barn and the dog sprang at him, biting both hips, taking quite a bit of flesh from the lower one. The animal then bit Mr. Smead's left arm. Dr. R. C. White cauterized and dressed the wounds, and Mr. Smead kept the dog a few days to ascertain if there was anything the matter with him. Mr. Smead is of the opinion that the dog was badly hurt, and he had been locked up in the barn for a number of hours.

COLCHESTER

Middletown Team Defeated 10-8—Rev. Dr. Mix at Congregational Church—Shoe Company Dissolves.

One of the largest crowds that has attended a ball game for a number of years was in the park Saturday afternoon to witness the game between the Independents and the Wilcox & Crittenden team of Middletown. The lineup:

Independents—Rosen, C. Lazinski, p. Danovich, 1b. Tumber, 2b. Shout, 3b. West, ss. O'Brien, rf. Friedman, cf. Clark, lf.

Wilcox & Crittenden—Werner, c. J. Stroble, p. Beveridge, 1b. Shout, 2b. Richter, 3b. Shout, 4b. Bower, rf. Krauth, cf. W. Bower, lf.

The W. & C. team started off with a run in the first inning, and the local team began to look as though the home team was not in the game. But after this inning the team settled down to business and won the game by the score of 10 to 8.

The W. & C. team was excellent, while that of the locals was poor at times. Both pitchers did good work, striking out about the same number of batters. The W. & C. team made a home run. W. B. Lombard umpired the game and Levine scored.

The W. & C. team was a fine set of young men, and the usual chewing matches during the game were not heard.

Former Missionary to Speak. At the Sunday morning service in the Congregational church, Rev. Dr. Mix of Chicago preached an excellent sermon, taking as his subject Good Citizenship. Next Sunday evening Mrs. Jamieson, who has been residing in town for a number of years, will speak at the missionary meeting. Mrs. Jamieson was for a number of years a missionary in the northern part of the island of Formosa.

Briefs and Personal. Mr. and Mrs. Israel Lindsey of Providence are guests of relatives in town for a few days.

Charles H. Bailey returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in Norwich and Bozrah.

Mrs. Henry J. Bailey and daughter, Miss Allison, returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in Bozrah.

Shoe Company Dissolved. The Colchester Shoe company met at Judge Buell's Saturday afternoon for the purpose of dissolving the company as members have sold their property in town.

Frank Foote and Raymond Smith were at Hayward's lake Saturday on a fishing trip. They returned in the evening with a nice string of pickerel and perch.

Twelve summer boarders from New York arrived at the Grand Hotel Saturday afternoon.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Over Four Hundred Enjoyed Annual Outing—Two Coons Shot at Crystal Lake.

The special train leaving Stafford Springs Saturday morning carried about four hundred on an excursion to Watch Hill and Block Island. The train arrived in New London about 10 o'clock and the excursionists boarded the steamer Block Island set sail for Watch Hill, arriving there at twelve o'clock. A heavy sea was running, which frightened many into staying at Watch Hill. The graver ones remained.
